Abstract

Those who are specialized in linguistics and literature know AlMa’ari as a creative person based on the opinions of the earlier novelists and critics after classifying and memorizing these opinions.

Because of that Dr. Iz aldeen Ismaeel claims that the process of shedding light on Al Ma’ari and criticizing him must be fulfilled by those who have special abilities and qualities represented by culture, mood and good ability to analyze in order to be able to recognize his accurate way of writing which makes him specialized and creative in using the unusual words and expressions of the orations and the poetry of the Arabs.

The researcher concluded from this research, that Al Ma’ari was concerned with analyzing the text to approach the best figure in syntax and morphology, and this is one conclusion from those who are obtained from this research.
